

Dear Studio Directors:

In celebration of National Dance Week, the Greater Harrisburg Arts Council will coordinate a kickline on the Pennsylvania State Capitol steps on April 18, 2010. Dance workshops will immediately follow the kickline at the Harrisburg Hilton & Towers in downtown Harrisburg. Leading the "12th Anniversary Kickline" will be Holly Evans, a local dancer. Holly now resides in NY and is a former New York City Rockette. Joining Holly Evans and the dancers for workshops will be renowned performers and dance instructors: Kyle Mullins, Terri Rosenberg and Amanda Lehman; all admired experts in their field.

The Pennsylvania State Capitol and the Harrisburg Hilton & Towers are connected in the downtown area of Harrisburg. Pennsylvania dancers of all ages are welcome to join in and be counted at the Capitol Kickline and workshops. Please pre-register. Our event receives wonderful media coverage and has been featured in a past issue of the national publication of Dance Magazine (April '03), and on local news programs.

Please take a moment to read the enclosed information. Copy and distribute the information as needed. Photocopies of the registration form are acceptable. Feel free to make copies or enlargements of the enclosed flyer. One check per studio is requested, payable to Capitol Kickline, 712 Grantham Road, Mechanicsburg, PA 17055.

Any studio owner bringing 10 students or more may attend the event for free and receive a free lunch and give away!

Please join Pennsylvania dancers, as we "SHARE" the spotlight, to "kick off" National Dance Week. Any questions may be directed to Janice Brougher, Kickline Co-Chair, at (717) 691-5567 or janice@capitolkickline.com or to Robert Stadnycki at the Greater Harrisburg Arts Council at (717)238-5180 or friends@harrisburgarts.org.

Thank You,

Robert Stadnycki
Executive Director
Greater Harrisburg
Arts Council

Janice Brougher
Capitol Kickline Founder/Co-Chair
National Dance Week
Regional Delegate

Carol Wevodau
Capitol Kickline Co-Chair

New This Year

Join the Dancer's Showcase!

New This Year